Ayur. Dr. Hendrick De Silva Hettigoda
Founder of Siddhalepa Balm

About us

During the third quarter of the 19th century a distinguished citizen lived in Pingoda, Imaduwa, Walpola, in Galle District. He was Hettigoda Gamage Don Carolis De Silva, and though his main profession was cultivation, he excelled in Astrology and more skillfully as an Ayurvedic Physician.

One of his sons, Hendrick De Silva Hettigoda studied Ayurveda and Astrology while the youngest son, the late Most Ven. Dr. Walpola Rahula, rose to the pinnacle of fame as a world renowned Buddhist Scholar.

Hendrick de Silva Hettigoda after studying Ayurveda and Astrology under his father, proceeded to India and studied under the Yogis in their Ashrams at the foothills of the Himalayas for over 15 years. He was fluent in Sinhala, Pali, Sanskrit and English and was a highly respected Ayurvedic physician and an Astrologer of the highest calibre.

In recognition of his expertise in the field of Astrology, he was elected to be the President of the Astrological Society of Sri Lanka, then Ceylon. He authored the following monographs: Caring of children, Jeevitaya Ha Grahayo, Sathriya Mayam and Palapala Kiyana Heti (the scientific art of Astrological predictions).

He was the father of Deshabandu Ayur. Dr. Victor Hettigoda.

Deshabandu
Ayur.Dr.Victor Hettigoda
Chairman, Hettigoda Group

Victor Hettigoda, Chairman Hettigoda Group of Companies, was born in Kananke, Matara, Sri Lanka, in 1937 to a family of sound standing, reputation and respect. Victor was the fifth in a family of nine children. He received his education at Rahula College, Matara.

On leaving school, Victor joined his father as a "helper student" in pursuit of his noble ancestral profession of Ayurveda Medicine. It took him nearly 12 years to learn the art of Ayurveda Medicine. He spent many late nights burning the midnight oil, engrossed in "Ola Leaf" manuscripts and books on Ayurveda.

Victor's untiring efforts and devotion towards Ayurveda won the approval of his father resulting in the reward of disclosing the secret formula of "Siddhalepa" Balm - the "wonder" Balm. The desire for independence and the opportunity for achievement were in him, but financial resources were a problem. However, the initial investment of Rs 2,500/= came to him from a trusted relative in 1971 to start his venture.

Victor's dynamism has no limitations. He traveled far and wide by bus reaching every nook and corner of remote villages on foot, in an effort to promote Siddhalepa Balm. His wife, a graduate teacher, kept the home fires burning and nursed their three children amidst many a sacrifice. Dr. Hettigoda recalls the year he purchased an old Hillman car. That was in 1977. Besides the old car he employed a 17 year old youth to assist him in his clerical work and other business activities.

Today, his Company; a resounding success, has a fleet of over 120 delivery vehicles and a workforce of over 750 persons distributing a host of Ayurvedic products in Sri Lanka as well as a lucrative export market. The Company is also a source of beneficial employment to physically handicapped persons and the less fortunate ones.
